“ My dearly missed mother. You were constantly on my mind today. Thought it would get easier over time but I can't really say that it has. You are my mother and friend and so thankful to have had you in my life as long as I did. You are watching over all of us. You know what is going on and we dearly, dearly need your prayers and your loving thoughts sent from you. You always knew the right words to say, the right time to say them and when not to say anything. Sent your loving, prayerful thoughts to your family. You are needed.

I love you Mom. Even after 6 years, I miss you as much today as the day the Lord took you home.

“ Happy Birthday to my dear, dear Mother. Always loved, always on my mind and always missed. Not a day goes by that I don't think of you. I miss our times together, whether with just us or our family. I miss sharing with you, laughing with you, crying with you, all the things we did together. I love you Mom.

“ Mom.....we never say we lost you, we know exactly where you are, with our Lord and Savior. Those we love don't go away. They walk beside us everyday. Unseen, unheard but always near, always loved, always missed and oh so dear.

Five years ago today, your life journey ended. You are at rest and peace and I know so happy. I feel you watch over all of us daily. You're smiling down on all of us, watching and celebrating all the great things that are being achieved. You are our angel keeping us all safe.

You are so loved and missed. I love you Mom. Sigrid Ann

Happy Birthday Mom. Today would have been your 92nd !!! What a celebration we would have had. I love you and miss you so so much. You are in my thoughts daily. Not a day goes by that I don't think about you, miss you, wish you were here. I love you more than you could ever know.

“ The 5th Mother's Day without you Mom. You are as missed today as you are every day. I had so many good memories of you. Paul and I talked and laughed about things you had said and done. You could have quite the sense of humor ! Something else to miss about you. I'm looking at your beautiful picture as I'm writing this. I hope I showed you how much you were loved and appreciated. Your unconditional love for all of us was shown everyday. I know where you are and you are happy and at peace. I love you Mom.

“ Remembering you Mom on your birthday. It doesn't seem real that just 4 short years ago we were more than likely going somewhere to celebrate your day. I think about you every day and miss you so much. You know what is going on down here with your family and I know you are sending your wonderful and powerful prayers to us.

“ Hi Mom. Three years have gone by since Jesus took you home. You were so tired and I know you were ready. Of course, out of our selfishness, none of us wanted you to go. Our family just isn't the same without you. You left an emptiness no one will ever be able to fill. I wouldn't want anyone else to. You are always in my thoughts, one way or the other. Either just thinking about you, looking at your picture, wanting to tell you something, still picking up the phone to call you. I know at least once a week, Paul and I will just sit and talk about Mom....wonderful memories, funny stories - oh, you could be so funny and make us laugh !!! My dear, sweet, wonderful Mother - I love you.

“ Love and miss you so much Mom. You know I didn't forget your birthday - you know where I was.....so, so close to you. I know I shouldn't be sad for you but I just miss you. The time of year is coming up that you loved so much, just being with family was what meant so much to you. You have passed that on to me for sure. There is nothing like family. Tuesday wasn't the same again this year, it never will be. I didn't get the first phone call from you. I still expect it. I know you are at peace. I love you.

I love you and miss you. I remember how much you loved Angels - please send one here to keep watch over our family.

“ Mom, another holiday season has come and gone.....sure not the same without you. I just wanted to share what my dear daughter and your first-born granddaughter said to me when I have having a "missing Mom" day.....your birthday.

I'm sorry you're having a bad day. I wish I could help you. I know it's a hard day. We just deal with things differently even though we are so much alike. I miss mamaw every single day just like you do. If I had one wish it would be that mamaw was here with us but to know that she is our angel and is watching over us give me peace. Just remember we are a part of her and always remember how blessed we have been to have her in our life and all of our wonderful memories. Without her we would not be the women we are. I love you.

I know you watch over all of us constantly.....if you can, please pray for everyone in our family. Your prayers were so powerful.

“ I knew Mary Jo for many years as a child. Unfortunately, once my grandmother passed my family grew apart. I am just learning of her passing. My condolences. She was always such a joy and I think of her often.

“ My dear, dear Mom. Tonight two years ago was the last night you were with us. Still just like it was yesterday. There are no words to tell you what you meant to me - no mother could have been better. I am having cataract surgery tomorrow, just like you did. I'll be okay because I know you are with me. I know you are watching over all of us, our angel. I love you Mom.

“ Happy Birthday Mom. Your being gone from this earth hit me hard today - some days are like that. I know you are in a much, much better place, no pain, no heartache, only tears of happiness. I hope you knew how much you meant to me - no one could have been a better mother than you.

“ My dear Mom....it's been a while since I've put a note on here - believe me, it's not that you are forgotten. That could not be further from the truth. You are on my mind and in my thoughts every single day. I miss you as much today as the day you went home to be with our Heavenly Father. There are so many things that when I hear them or they happen, you are the first person I think of - oh, I can't wait to tell Mom this or that. I don't know if it is possible, but our family misses your prayers and if you are able, please keep praying. That's really silly of me to say to you - if you are able to, of course you are praying for your family. I love and miss you so, so much.

My dear, dear Mom.....In a couple of days, it will be one year since the Lord took you in his arms for the eternal rest that you so deserve. I love and miss you more than I could ever have known. If I am only half the mother to my kids as you were to me, I have succeeded. You are in my thoughts every since day.

“ Mom, it has been 7 months since you left this world to be with the Lord. I know you are happy where you are, there is no doubt. You are so missed by everyone. Not a day, usually not an hour, goes by that I don't think of you - something I need to tell you, something funny you did, and most of all I miss your prayers for all of us in the family. You prayed for your family every day.

I love you Mom and miss you so much.

“ She was such a special lady and oh what a character!! Always had a smile on her face and a kind word to share. There's no one quite like Sis Ludwig! She will be greatly missed!! But her troubles are all over now for she's bound for that city of beauty so rare to live with her savior eternally there!!! We do not weep for her but we weep for all of us that will miss her so! Our prayers are with all the family and dear friends that loved her so much!!
