“ She was a member of Northeast Church o Christ for over 40 years
Was a devoted wife and mother Widowed at a young age yet continued to live a successful life for herself and her children
She retired from Indianapolis Public Schools She had a terrible temper, but that made her a stronger person. She never stopped her fight until the end when she got tired and turned it over to God.
She loved to crochet which supplemented her income and kept her busy after retirement
She didn't want plants or pets because she didn't want to take care of anything, yet she spent her entire life taking care of everyone. She would take in anyone who needed fed or a place to sleep.
We will miss her Christmas Eve gathering every year.
I hope that somehow she knows how much she was loved and how many lives she touched.
She will be greatly missed by all who loved her.
