“ Goal keepers are typically the last line of defense before the opponent takes a shot on goal. Very few players have the strength, skills and personality to handle the position. It takes a unique kind of crazy and a genuine personality to be the last one standing in the way, to stare down your teammates and say, "I've got your back." Matt was this type of teammate & friend. No matter what, we always knew Matt would give it his all for his teammates. Regardless of the game's outcome or life's challenges, Matt was everyone's goal keeper! He worked hard (typically measured by the bright red face) and made us laugh. He was always cheering us on, celebrating our successes, and would bravely step up when called up. Rest in Peace Matt! May you enjoy endless soccer games and rounds of soccer golf. We know you will watch over your children, your family, your friends with those huge goalie gloves and your genuine heart! (This may be a little cheesy, but I was afraid our 34th street stories may not have been published!)

Love your teammate,

Jeff, I love your post because all of it is true about Matt. He was special and for all those years it felt like he was a brother to my son, Chris. It still does. I will really miss him.

“ I got to know Matty at Tuttle's March Madness event every year. We'd have lots of fun, friendly banter especially around "horse race" time. He was a great guy with a great sense of humor and will be missed greatly. I am very sorry for your loss. Rest in Peace my friend.

“ Matt and I always talked at Tuttle’s March Madness gathering. After a big hug, he would fill me in on his kids. I know there will be such a huge hole when the guys gather next March. He was a friend to my son, Matt Coffing, and so many others. How very sad to lose him in the prime of his life. My deepest sympathies to the entire family.

“ Matt was a sweetheart. He made our house a happier place whenever he stopped by. He always gave me a big bone crushing hug and told me " be good Shorty!" I will miss his smiling face and his big hugs! God Bless him and his family. 😊🏀
