

Mayron "Ron" H. Rowe

May 18, 1921 - January 7, 2012

Mayron Ron H. Rowe 90, of Indianapolis, passed away January 7, 2012. He was born May 18, 1921 in Alamo, GA to the late Noah and Roxie Hall Rowe. Mayron had a wonderful childhood, growing up on a farm in Alamo with his younger brother, Garland. He loved to share the many stories from those early years. Ron graduated from Wheeler County High School in 1938. He then served his country as a pilot in the U.S. Air Force and retired as a Lt. Colonel in 1964. Ron returned to school and graduated from the University of Florida in 1971. He began a second career as a high school science teacher in Orange Park, Florida. He was able to visit Alamo frequently, and was a wonderful son who took great care of his elderly parents. He and his wife moved to Indianapolis in 1986 to be near their daughter. Mayron was a devoted husband and a loving father who cared deeply for his family, his land, and nature. The Rowe family would like to thank Carmel Health & Living Community for their kindness, sensitivity, thoughtfulness, and extraordinary care. Visitation will be held Wednesday, January 11, 2012 from 11:00 a.m. until the time of services at 1:00 p.m. at Shirley Brothers Fishers-Castleton Chapel, 9900 Allisonville Rd. Ron is survived by his wife, Shirley R. Scheele Rowe; daughter, Victoria Rowe Rothschild Gradick (Herman); son, Kevin T. Rowe; grandchildren, Christopher and Corie Rowe; niece, Diane Vann; nephew, Nathan Rowe; cousin, Fred Hall, and his much loved cats, Debbie, Blackie, and Egnog.

Michael Pulizzi

“ To the family of Mayron H Rowe: I am Mike Pulizzi in South Dakota. My father Peter S Pulizzi, still living in Southern California, served under Major Mayron H Rowe at Hunter AFB Savannah GA. I hope I am writing to the correct family. I wanted to let you know that my dad left the AF March 1957 and has always talked about how great, caring and positive Major Rowe was to him and many others. I just came across this letter of recommendation that Major Rowe must have written for my dad before he left the service. I have attached for your memories. My email, should you wish to contact me is mbpulizzi@yahoo.com
