“ I worked alongside Bud for the last two years. This past Saturday was the last time I got to see him. I always looked forward to hearing him say “There she is, there’s trouble” in the mornings at our stops. Such a kind soul he had. Gonna truly miss seeing him every morning or just passing by each other on our daily route. So sorry for your families loss, prayers to all

“ Bud was a brother to me. He was there for me through my hardest days. We shared many memories from stocking shelves, Colts Camp, a Sevendust concert, my family's move to Michigan in which I relied heavily upon him as well as some projects here in our new home. We hiked and fished and swang like kids on a swing. We hung out in a treehouse built for my son, watching deer walk by. We swam in Lake Michigan and tossed touchdown passes to each other with a Colts football while waves crashed upon us. We sat with our feet in the sand and beer in our hands soaking up the rays on a rare summer vacation he was able to trade for. We went to the 500 and if I recall correctly, he hadn't been before. We spent endless hours on the phone while he ran his route, sometimes talking Colts or Pacers, other times were more in depth about life. We shared many hugs, lots of laughs and even a few heartfelt tears. I loved Bud like a brother. We were there for each other even though he sometimes didn't want to burden me with his problems. Bud loved my kids too. He championed my son's Boy Scout popcorn cause and as luck would have it, Bud made the purchase that broke Michigan's state record in October 2016. Bud will always hold a special place in my heart. I miss him dearly and am sad I didn't have a chance to tell him one last time how much I love him or to say good bye. Budders, I love you brother...until we meet again in Heaven, RIP.
