“ When I was young I went to Franklin Central Church. I always respected Mr. Seitz. He was a smart and good man. He did a lot for the church and the youth group. I remember going up to their place on the lake . He took us skying and we played "greased watermelon" . When I graduated I was out trying to find a job and really needed a mentor to talk to. I walked into Service Supply, a Fortune 500 Company, and had them call his office. No appointment, he didn't even blink. The next thing I knew I was setting the the CEO's office with a pop in my hand. He talked me through things and he believed in me. He told me I would succeed, and to just stay confident. Mr. Seitz you made this world a better place. God bless you.

“ I only knew Melvin C. Seitz Jr. through his daughter, Cindy, who I have known through my service as a member of the Board of Directors for About Special Kids. My Dad always said "the acorn doesn't fall too far from the tree" and in reading about Cindy's Dad and seeing his picture, you could tell he was pretty amazing. So is his daughter -- who does amazing work for About Special Kids. My deepest sympathy to all in the Seitz family.
