“ When my sister found you she found gold , I will always remember how you stood by her side threw her long illness and helped her raise her boy's and grandchildren . I remember when you were dating you two came to my house and held my babies , even tho their diaper leaked you still were excited to hold them , I still have those baby shoes you autographed , the day you and Sis were married while my son made motor noises with his hot wheels on the church pews. God sure did bless our family when he put you in Sandra and the boy's life . We will surely miss you , Heaven must be celebrating your arrival and I know your glad to be back with Sis .
