“ Dear children of Mike Dick,
My husband, Dave Neal, went through St. Andres grade school with your dad. At that time, St. Andrew, located at 38th and Forest Manor was a huge Catholic school. My husband and your dad graduated in 1959 with a 8th grade class of about 94 kids. At that time, my husband said he didn't know anyone but Catholics! He said it was a wonderful area in which he and your dad grew up! After grade school, your dad and Dave went to Scecina high school on the east side. It was at Scecina that Loretta (Molnar) Neal met your dad and future husband, Dave. Scecina was a wonderful place to go to high school. If you have them, look at your dad's old yearbooks. Father Riedman was a very young priest teaching there at this time. I'm sure your dad knew him. Father died at 93 in March of this year. We kept in close contact through the years. Feel sure he welcomed your dad into heaven. Anyway, blessings to you, his children. Your dad and we lost touch after graduation, except maybe reunions! Never had the pleasure of meeting your mother. May God bless you and take care of you!
Loretta (Molnar) and Dave Neal

Best Class Scecina ever had!

“ Loved Mike's sense of humor and his fondness of the fifties. Very sad that I lost touch with him these last few years.
