“ Stacia and I are very lucky he was our Dad. Although we had some rocky times later in life, everything he did for us as we grew up and what we were able to do for him in the last few years of his life are memories to treasure. He was always there for us. One time my mother asked him if he wanted to try for a boy, since he had two girls. He said no, I have the best of both worlds. I can teach my daughters to throw a ball, throw a football, work on a car and all the other things you would do with your boy plus have them sit on my lap as my baby girls. That we did. Love you Dad and will miss you always.
