“ Although I only joined this family a little over 4 years ago, Uncle Mike was one of my favorites. He always greeted me with a smile or a laugh and made me feel so welcomed around him. I loved hearing the stories of children thinking he was Santa Clause all year long in the most random places like Wal-Mart. He will be truly missed.

Mike, Distance may have kept us from seeing one another very much at all over the many years you've been in our family but you were always thought of what the utmost kindness and love. The best memory was when I came with my daughter and granddaughter to Angela and Steve's wedding, at the reception you walked up to our table and my granddaughter call do you Santa Claus. That moment has been at least in my mind.

Rosanna, besides being my cousin do you were My God-sister shucks my sister and the dearest friend one kid ever have. Know that I have my arms wrapped around you do you are in my every prayer and thought and know that anytime you need me I'm only a phone call and a couple hours away Make God bless you and your family and may Mike Rest in peace till we all join him again. Love you to infinity and beyond
