“ Mildred was one of the first clients I met at SarahCare when I started my career as a brand new CNA. She was always talking about the "children", and we figured it was from when she was a teacher. She loved taking care of our baby doll here, and would hold her all day long. We would have to really do some talking to her to get her to let us hold the baby while she ate lunch. She would come to the center dressed for every holiday occasion, and would even have a blanket on her lap to match the season. Everyone should be so lucky to have been so loved, and so taken care of by their family as Mildred was. Our hearts go out to you all.

Prayers,

“ I loved taking Mammaw on walks around the neighborhood in her wheelchair how she would smile and talk. So many great memories. Mammaw was loved by everyone❤️ She will forever be in my heart. It was a honor to know her.
