“ As a child, my grandma's house at 59 South Gladstone was a magical place. Her front porch was mission control, aircraft carrier and fort. Inside, her giant rocking chair was a space capsule, a James Bond car, or just a place to take a nap. At her kitchen table, I learned Chemistry, listened to the "500", and congregated with family. Every inch, every moment holds a memory. And every memory is good. Good-bye, Grandma. We'll meet again soon.

“ My grandmother was the strongest and best person I have ever known. Although we had been separated by distance for many years, our hearts never were. I love you, Grandma.

“ I will miss Mildred very much. She was my favorite resident while working at Forest Creek. I was able to visit her and loved her stories and her laugh. She will be missed. My thoughts and prayers go out to the family.

“ Didn't know your mom personally but feel like I did thru Facebook and birthday cards. God bless her for 103 years here on earth--she sure outlived her hubby. Jane and Steve, you have been wonderful support. May God bless you both with peace and comfort.

“ I love you, grandma. I can't imagine my life without you. I loved our funny phone conversations and comparing aches and pains. You will always be a part of me, you are a part of my very soul. I look forward to your visits in my dreams and feeling your presence. Love to everyone who surrounds you and may you have everlasting peace
