“Mildred was a fine mother to her children. Her children were frequent visitors to our home while we were all raising our families. In her lifetime she was always friendly and kind. She will be remembered as a wonderful Christian.

“I first met sis mildred at church. We instantly became friends. Then she told me about an opening at Cigna Insurance when beth mooney was leaving. I got the job & worked there until they moved to Michigan. But one year for our Christmas dinner, I fixed her & john up to go with us & the rest is history. I worked with mildred at two other jobs, both of us retiring in 2013 from liberty mutual. She & i stayed good friends thruout the years. I'm gonna miss her so much. Sis Connie McCurry

Mildred was one of the kindest coworkers I ever had. I was just telling my husband this summer about how she would make homemade biscuits and bring them in with fresh sliced garden tomatoes for all of us at work! We often talked about her children and grands . She will be greatly and fondly missed by so many!
Go rest high dear Mildred your work is done!

I can't say goodbye because Lord willing we'll meet again over yonder. She had a part in my baby shower for my first daughter. She sewed for me. She would stop in my nursing home room to chat. She was a wonderful spirit filled sister. Praying for John and children.- Sis Bufford
