“ Morris Clifford was one of the grandest people that I have ever known. His kind and gentle ways were admired by everyone who knew him. He loved his Savior, Jesus, with all his heart and soul, and Morris was always pleased to share that awesome love with others.

Now he is with his Lord, his beloved Hazel, and family who preceded.

Morris will be missed.

“ What a wonderful gentleman and friend Morris was to the "brady bunch". My father Paul , loved him like a brother. The two families spent many wonderful hours together at church and family gatherings. I remember as a young girl how special laughter was to Morris. He will truly be missed by all, but most important, he is now with his friend Paul again!

Thanks for sharing your father Harriett and Dean. We loved him too!

“ The memories of Uncle Morris bring a smile to our faces. We cherish times spent at family reunions hosted at the Goodman house.

Uncle Morris was a wonderful man; honorable, kind, caring and always happy. The marriage he shared with Aunt Hazel was rare and beautiful. I'm comforted that they are together again. They certainly set a high standard as a couple and a family.

“ There is nothing finer than remembering the wonderful times of traveling down "south" and visiting family. Such kind memories of a warm, caring family.

Morris, you will be missed, but there is no doubt you are happy to be in such great company in heaven. Hazel now has her soul mate with her again.

Thank you for showing us how a family should be.

“ I never got to know my own Grandpa's very well. But this one was very precious to me. He was the kindest most faithful man, husband, dad, grandfather and great grandfather I've ever known. He loved his family, his church family and was kind to everyone he met. He adored my children and loved to have them visit and they loved it too. He was a very special man and I will be glad he is home with his Lord and his beloved wife!
