

Mozelle Maxine Livengood Thurman

October 31, 1919 - December 14, 2015

Mozelle Maxine Livengood Thurman, 96, a resident of Marquette Manor and widow of Harold Thurman died Monday night, December 14, 2015. Mozelle Maxine Livengood Thurman was born on October 31, 1919, to Carl and Gaynell Burns Livengood of Whitestown, IN. She was a graduate of Whitestown High School and Indiana Business College. She retired from Tri State Construction as their long time accountant and was a member of Women in Construction Association. Traveling to their conventions was a wonderful experience for her. Mozelle was active in the Cross and Crown Lutheran quilting group and East 91st Street Christian Church where she served in the Best Years Fellowship activities. Attending the Marquette Protestant Chapel was a joy to her. Traveling was always a great adventure. You could mention a location or destination and she would want to know when we were leaving. Mozelle is preceded in death by her parents; and her husband, Harold Thurman. She is survived by her cousin, Gloria (Donald) Zink and Gloria's family. She will be missed by her many longtime friends and neighbors. Visitation will be Monday, December 21, 2015 from 10:00 a.m. until the time of the Memorial Service at 12:00 noon at Shirley Brothers Fishers-Castleton Chapel, 9900 Allisonville Rd. Mozelle will be privately interred at Oak Hill Cemetery in Lebanon, Indiana. In lieu of flowers, donate to the charity of your choice in her memory.
