“ I wish to connect with a family member. My name is Helen L. Wiseman. Nancy, her daughter Rada and son Robert visited my husband Paul and I in our red Amish barn in the mid-nineties. It was a wonderful weekend visit. In 1999, we moved to Kettering, Ohio to be near our daughter Mary Lynn and I lost my contact with Nancy. We worked together at the Indiana National Bank in the 70's. We became very close. We also had a pact that we would never leave this earth without letting one another know. I sadly miss Nancy in my life and I learned much later through a friend in Indianapolis her Obituary appeared in the Indianapolis Star. I was totally shocked! I had no word but that is understandable because my husband passed away and I now live in Englewood, Ohio. Nancy's daughters can contact me through email. My email address is hlwiseman@outlook.com. I would love to hear from Nancy's family and also know how Bonnie is doing! Nancy will live in my heart forever and ever. Thank you for answering! Helen

“ Irene,
My mother, Frances Ley Mader, knew your mom from North Vernon.
I remember you as a friend at St. Mary-of-the-Woods. I am sorry for your loss.

“ I knew Nancy briefly, but she has such a wonderful family, that she had to be a wonderful Mom. I feel lucky and blessed that I was a part of her life, if only for a short time. I know you are soaring with angels, and will be greatly missed.
