“ Heaven definitely gained another angel. Nan was one of the kindest and gentle souls I have ever known. She was so strong in her fight and kept on pushing forward, even when she didn't feel like it. I will greatly miss Nan, but I know her body is healed now. God bless and comfort the family in your time of sorrow. ~Donna Riggs~

“ So sad about the loss of this wonderful woman. She fought the good fight for so many years while still thinking more about others than herself. Her strength was so admirable and her love of friends and family so vast. Will mourn her loss but be grateful she is out of pain and in the welcoming arms of our Father. Rest In Peace my friend!

“ Dear Blake, Emily and Jeff, I'm so sorry you all have to experience the loss of your precious mom. She was a most amazing person. We shared a big part of our lives together, coaching our girls softball teams together, living together for a bit, she was the first person besides the doctors and myself that laid eyes on Nathon as he came into the world. We had several laughs about her sneaking into the bathroom to wet a washcloth so that I could have water during labor by squeezing it out into my mouth because the nurses and doctors wouldn't let me have water or ice chips...she rang it out and I nearly came unglued! I told her, "go back, soak that sucker and don't wring it out" and she did as we both laughed. She was one of the sweetest souls I've ever had the pleasure of knowing. She leaves her legacy behind and it lives on through each one of you. Love to each one of you.

Blessings,
Eydie

“ My beautiful, sweet friend. I will miss our talks. I'll miss our lunches. I'll miss your smile, but will never forget the sound of your laughter. I'll always remember the love & pride you had for Blake, Emily & Jeff, & how you enjoyed talking about their accomplishments. I'll treasure the memory of our trip to The Farm in Bloomington, & the spiritual healing we felt there. I'll remember how you fought every second of every day, & how you treasured your family & friends for the strength you felt from them. Rest now, sweet Nan. The light you left behind will shine on forever.

“ *Blake, Emily and Jeff,
Aaron, Tyler, Aubrey and I are so sad to hear of the loss of your wonderful mother. I have many wonderful memories with your Mom. She and I walked in the morning for about a year and a half. She inspired me to keep going. I would have quit. She made me walk faster. It was everything I needed to hear at that time in my life. We had many talks about life. That is how I know that there was nothing on this earth that meant more to her than her three children. I take some comfort in knowing that I will see her in heaven. She meant a lot to me. You will all be in our prayers.
Love to you all,
