“ I hope the family can still get these memories. I only found out about Nancy's passing last night. We grew up together and shared a love for music. We would go to her house after school and I would play the piano and she the trumpet. Herb Alpert was our favorite. Nancy and I also shared one of the pinnacle experiences of my life when our parents got us tickets to see Igor Stravinsky conduct the Columbus Symphony Orchestra. It was amazing. I am so sorry for your loss. Nancy was an incredible person. I was so fortunate to have had her as a friend.

“ Dear Larry,

I recently heard of the passing of your dear wife Nancy. I want to express to you my deepest sympathy and love. My prayer is that you have experienced the great peace and grace that only the Lord can bestow. I can recall several memorable times of being with you and Nancy when I directed the Cedarville Band. You folks were so hospitable and you admired my pajamas so that you had to take pictures of me wearing them. I have been retired now for almost 7 years. As churches changed in my last years at CU it was very difficult to book venues for a 90 piece band. I always admired Nancy's support of my program, her friendship, her sense of humor and her wonderful musicianship. She will be missed but her impact on so many students will live on. God Bless you Larry!

What a wonderful presentation. I was a little busy when that was shown.

I am now sitting comfortably in my chair enjoying this and remembering my beautiful wife Nancy. THANK YOU.

“ Nancy taught our daughters piano, French horn, and trombone every Monday afternoon for the past nine years. She was wonderful... a fantastic teacher and a beautiful human. Our family has lost a true friend. We will miss her so much.

“ Nancy always took an interest in our daughters and their growth in music. Growing up next door to her, they played piano contest pieces for her. We could sometimes hear her practicing her trumpet through the walls between our homes, and it was always a moment to enjoy!

“ Nancy was responsible for giving my name to Bethesda when they needed a Spanish teacher. That began my 7 years at Bethesda Christian School. My kids were able to attend there for which I was thankful. Nancy also shared her teaching abilities with my children. She taught Brian trumpet and Lisa piano. I am thankful for her friendship and my prayers and sympathy are with her family.

I have known Nancy since college days at Cedarville. What an amazing person - generous, complimentary, encouraging, loyal, perseverant, determined, stimulating. I will affirm that she fulfilled her life's passion and career in music until the end.

“ I will always remember Nancy for the passion she had for her dogs and for the passion with which she lived life. I know she provided so much musically to the city and to her students and blessed so many people and animals.
