“ I have had a difficult time writing my memories without dissolving in tears. Nancy -we called her Nan and later for no sane reason - I called her the Naners and our other dear roommate the Sue-ser. Nan and Sue were seniors - I was a Junior when we roomed together at Hanover in the AOP house. It was the best year of my college life. We had so much fun laughing, playing cards- learning bridge - Sue was an expert and riding in Sue's Ford Fairlane with the hard top convertible. It also leaked on seats when it rained. About two years later, she was my bridesmaid. I attended her wedding in this church. We kept up with each other as we became Mothers and wives and moved through life both in locations and the journey of adult hood. These last years as we had the freedom to plan times to meet. We have worked to stay together. Sue in Ohio and Nan and me in either Florida or Indiana. Now Nan and I lived minutes from each other. Always laughing and enjoying those precious moments, I mourn selfishly for myself. A friendship that lasted more than sixty years is irreplaceable. I thank God for allowing me to experience it. I will need His help to adapt to life without her. I loved her so much. Maureen
