

Nancy P. Smith

February 1, 1930 - August 27, 2012

82, of Indianapolis, Indiana, passed away August 27, 2012. She was born February 1, 1930, in Manchester, New Hampshire, to the late Carroll and Harriet Noyes Peavey. Nancy married Farquhar Smith, and together they owned and operated Smith's Flower Shop in Westerly, R.I. After retirement from the florist business, they were well known for their authentic New England style clam bakes. In her spare time, she loved surf casting off the area beaches, painting, and working in her gardens. She was also active in the Girl Scouts and was a member of Daughters of the American Revolution. Nancy was known to make the best out of any situation in a gracious way, and continued to follow that in her battle with cancer. A memorial service will be held Saturday, September 1, 2012, at 3:00 p.m. with visitation one hour prior at Shirley Brothers Fishers-Castleton Chapel, 9900 Allisonville Rd., Fishers, IN, 46037. A burial service will be held in Westerly, R.I. at a future date. Nancy is survived by her children, Greg Smith (Kathy) and Pam Smith; granddaughter, Sara Carr; sister, Jane Burdick (Howard); and brothers, Bob (Priscilla) and Alan (Nancy) Peavey; sister-in-law, Barbara Benson; and several nieces and nephews. Nancy's husband, Farquhar Smith, preceded her in death. Memorial contributions may be made the American Cancer Society.
