“ I will share a memory from my childhood, when her and her husband Bob lived on a farm in Amelia, Ohio. I was there visiting one day and Roberta had taken me out to see the rabbits (since they had a hutch full of them) and it was my first time to shoot a gun and see how the "country folk" lived. When we came in from the cold, wet, damp Ohio weather, my Aunt Nati was making Cinnamon Rolls (which I think she did from scratch) and that was my favorite memory of that farm, eating her food!! She could make cinnamon rolls that would melt in your mouth!! Her Spanish rice was good too!:)
