

Ned V. Poer

April 22, 1919 - April 6, 2012

Ned V. Poer, 92, of Fishers, passed away April 6, 2012. Our certainty is that he is with the Lord because of his faith in the Lord Jesus Christ. He was born April 22, 1919 in Gwynneville, IN, to the late Dave E. and Myrtle Poer. Ned was employed with General Motors as an Electrical Engineer for 40 years. Ned and Angeline (1917- 2002) were married in Anderson in 1944 and lived at 822 High St, near Anderson University (College then) until 1962, when Ned was transferred from the Delco Remy (plant engineering) to Detroit, where he was responsible for energy utilization policy for all of the GM plants in the country. While in Anderson, he and the family attended Central Christian Church where, as Chairman of the Deacon board, he coordinated and oversaw construction of the educational wing and the chapel of the church. Visitation will be Tuesday, April 10, 2012, from 11:00 a.m. until the time of service at 1:00 p.m. at Shirley Brothers Fishers-Castleton Chapel, 9900 Allisonville Rd. Ned is survived by his sister, Mary B. Garrison; and his loving children: Julie G. Bartlette, David V. Poer, MD, Jonathan L. Poer, Joseph B. Poer, and their spouses; 21 grandchildren and 36 great-grandchildren. His loving wife Angeline preceded him in death.
