

Norma Jean Hartley

May 14, 1929 - October 21, 2015

Norma Jean Hartley, 86, of Indianapolis, passed away October 21, 2015. She was born May 14, 1929 in Bloomington, IN, to the late Elmer A. and Altha B. Combs Todd. Norma was a 1947 graduate of Bloomington High School. She married Richard L. Hartley October 1, 1948 and was employed as a bank teller with both Chase, formerly known as AFNB and Sun Banks. After retirement, Norma was a cook for the Indiana Bible College and a hostess for Shirley Brothers Mortuaries. She was a longtime member of Calvary Tabernacle. Visitation will be Sunday, October 25, 2015 from 1:00 p.m. until the time of service at 4:00 p.m. at Shirley Brothers Thompson Road Chapel, 3333 E. Thompson Road.

Norma is survived by her loving daughter, Rebecca A. Hartley Stewart; grandchildren, S. Chad Thomas (Nina) and Tiffany N. Thomas; great-grandchild, Lakely Thomas; and sister, Ruth Ann Lane (Bobby). Norma's husband of 67 years, Richard L. Hartley; and an infant son, Timothy Todd, preceded her in death.

Memorial contributions may be made to Indiana Bible College.

“ Norma Jean was my Great Aunt. I knew her better when i was younger. I remember how her hair was never out of place no matter what she was doing. I know that doesnt sound like much but to someone like me who never can get her hair to do anything, it amazed me. Ive not seen her for years but the photos of her ive seen on Facebook she hadnt changed any. My heartfelt sympathy goes to the ones she left behind. You will all be in my thoughts. May you find peace in knowing her journey here is finished but shes embarking on a whole new adventure now. God Bless.

“ *Norma, Dick, and Becky were such wonderful neighbors. Becky I have great memories of being at your house when we were children. Your parents were always interesting, always welcoming, and over the years your Mother was such a good friend to my Mother...Mom loved to get Norma's letters and phone calls. God Bless you and your family, and give you peace in this difficult time. -
