Christmas In Heaven

I see the countless Christmas trees around the world below, with tiny lights, like Heaven's stars, reflecting on the snow,

the sight is so spectacular;
please wipe away that tear, for I am spending Christmas with Jesus Christ this year.

I hear the many Christmas songs that people hold so dear, but the sounds of music cannot compare with the Christmas choir up here.
I have no words to tell you, the joy their voices bring,
for it is beyond description to hear the angels sing.

I know how much you miss me.
I see the pain inside your heart, but I am not so far away,
we really aren't apart.
So be happy for me dear ones, you know I hold you dear, and be glad I'm spending Christmas with Jesus Christ this year.

I send you each a special gift from my heavenly home above, I send you each the memory of my undying love.
After all love is a gift more precious than pure gold, it was always most important in the stories that Jesus told.

Please love each other as our Father said to do, for I cannot count the blessings or the love he has for you.
So have a Merry Christmas and wipe away that tear, remember I am spending Christmas
with Jesus Christ this year.

“ We're so sorry for your loss, Anne and family! We certainly understand what you're going through in many ways. It's hard losing a parent, and I'm here for you, Anne, to share a box of kleenex, a bottle of wine or both! We have to find peace in knowing we'll see our loved ones again in Heaven.

On a lighter note, I remember spending a lot of time with the Heylmann family growing up. They're the only ones I ever heard of who put pickles in their chili! Ick! Did that come from your mom, Anne?!

*Love ya,

“ So sorry for your loss. My mother went to Pam at 9:30 on Thursday morning to have her hair done for years and years, going all the way back to the shop on S. Range Line Road-something she always looked forward to. Then Pam was the one who cut my hair for a long time, and then even my daughter, the third generation, while she lived in Indy. She was more than just someone who did our hair, though; she was a lovely person we got to know and looked forward to seeing. I enjoyed hearing about your family, the trips to Emerald Isle, the dancing, the knitting. Somehow I also felt closer to my mom whenever I saw her. She will be missed.

“ Dearest Chris, I am so sorry to hear that your sweet Mom has passed. I am so glad that we got to know your parents before we moved to AZ. She surely raised a fine son and I know that she was very proud of you. What a hard time of year to experience this loss, my heart goes out to you and yours as you grapple with the hard days ahead. Love and hugs from your "church mom"

“ I will always remember the joy Pam showed and felt while doing Israeli dances. I loved her deeply, and so admired her strength and optimism through her months of adversity. She spoke so lovingly of her children and grand-children. I know that John was her tower of strength. My heart is with all of you through this sad and difficult time. Barbara Karlan

Pam was such a loyal friend and employee. We had many many laughs together. I always admired her strength and her optimism. Remembering the times we were in the Carmel parade and she helped us all be clowns. Fun Fun. Also the times she dressed up on Halloween. I loved her like a sister. I am so sorry for your loss. She will be missed.

“ Pam was my husband Bill Vincent's cousin. She was a lovely woman and although I did not have the opportunity to spend much time with her I cherish the memory of her visit with us in Florida in about 2000. My sympathy to John and Chris. Carol Norris Vincent Pam was one of the nicest persons I ever met. We had dinner with her a few times when the Israeli Dance group went out to eat. A few years she gave us two little angels to hang on the wall as a "thank you" for hosting a dance at our house. Those two little angels have been in my kitchen ever since. We are out of town for the entire week after Christmas and will probably miss the funeral, but please know that we are thinking of her family and friends who will also be missing her. A special person she was. From Joanne Classick and Barry Levitt.
