“ Pat was a gracious lovely lady. We lived near her for 2 years. On our daily walks with our yellow lab puppy Tita we struck up a conversation and a beautiful friendship. She loved our Tita and Tita loved her. Her closest companion Sophie didn't share the love though. Pat was there on her porch every day waiting with a treat. As we rounded the corner Tita would drag us whining and barking to get to her Miss Pat. Now they are together neither one suffering the pain of their illnesses as they run through the flower gardens of our Lord Jesus. One day we will join you Miss Pat and Tita. We will miss her smiling face and happy attitude. Rest in peace Patty!
