

Patricia M. Hawn

March 9, 1924 - September 13, 2017

Patricia M. Hawn,

93, of Indianapolis, passed September 13, 2017. She was born March 9, 1924 in Boonah, Australia to the late Norman and May Parker Maudsley. Pat a World War II bride, married Nelson A. Hawn in Australia. He preceded her in death February 24, 2010 after 64 years of marriage. She was a bank teller for Clark County State Bank, now known as Chase Bank. She was an incredibly generous person who loved to cats and gardening.

Pat is survived by her loving children, Nelson N. Hawn, James R. (Claudia) Hawn and Marcelle Randolph; sister, Beryl Rogers; three grandchildren; and two great-grandchildren. A sister, Iris Maudsley, preceded her in death.

Final care and arrangements are entrusted to Shirley Brothers Mortuaries and Crematory, Indianapolis, IN. www.shirleybrothers.com.

Tribute Wall

BC

“ I am so heartbroke to hear of Patricia's passing. "Miss Pat" as she was known to my girls was a gracious, kind lady who always had a smile, and enjoyed sharing stories of Australia and her life here in the U.S. We would visit often with her when I would walk to the bus stop to pick up my girls, and my oldest daughter was reading "Anne of Green Gables" to her when she was moved from her home to nursing care. Definitely a soul who touched us and will be remembered always.

Becki Cook - September 25, 2017 at 04:19 PM

PS

I never had the opportunity to meet Miss Patricia, however her daughter Mrs. Hawn-Randolph was my counselor and Franklin Township Middle School many many years ago. She was so wonderful to me and I never forgot about her. I am so sorry to hear that she lost her Mom. I'm sure she was very special. I will never forget you Mrs. Randolph and you will always be in my prayers. Paul Smith Atlanta Georgia (former FTMS student)

Paul Smith - August 06, 2021 at 07:38 AM