

Patricia Ann Huston

March 18, 1932 - July 24, 2019

Patricia Ann Huston,

87, died in her Indianapolis home July 24, 2019 surrounded by friends and family. Pat was born March 18, 1932, in Anderson, IN, to Ross James and Alyce Utleigh, who preceded her in death. Her brothers, James and Alan also preceded her in death. Pat married Richard Huston, May 14, 1955. They were married until Dick's death in 2012. During their 57 year marriage, they traveled the world with family and friends on more than 30 cruises.

Pat is survived by four children, Alyson Clements (Rocky), Rich (Ruthann), James (Christy) and Paul Huston; seven grandchildren, Tony Clements, Katie Clements, Elizabeth Huston, John Huston (Lauren), Lt. Luke Huston (fiancée, Faith Klatt), David Huston and Joseph Huston; and three great-grandchildren, Lauren Clements, Matthew Clements and Michael Clements. She is also survived by special family members, John Pellett, his wife Sally; and many nieces and nephews.

Pat was born a child of the Great Depression, attended elementary school during WWII, and graduated from Anderson H.S. in 1950. Her education continued at Methodist School of Nursing. As a registered nurse, she was a surgical nurse in early years at Methodist Hospital and a psychiatric research nurse at Larue Carter Memorial Hospital, before retiring.

Pat was a faithful servant of our Lord and Savior and a member of Methodist/United Methodist congregations beginning at First Methodist in Anderson, then Asbury United Methodist in Indianapolis, and finally Cumberland United Methodist Church.

Pat was a conversationalist. She commanded the attention of a room with her power of engagement, never knowing a stranger. Her world travels and uncanny intelligence were honed from years of avid reading. She was a passionate civil rights advocate beginning in high school and preached to her children that all are born children of God.

Pat enjoyed acting in her youth, and often nostalgically shared memories about her performance as Mother Superior in Lilies of the Field in community theater. Her shopping skills were legendary. QVC has lost their most valued customer.

Aunt Pat was such a wonderful caring person. She was the best host when we came to visit and always made us feel so welcome. I will always remember her great cooking, especially her Swiss Chicken which I am thankful she shared the recipe with me and I will be making soon! Thank you for all your kind words throughout my life and for being so sweet and caring towards my kids. We always were so excited when it was time to visit her and the rest of the family in Indiana. You will be greatly missed. xoxo

“ When I was appointed pastor of Asbury UMC in June 1979, Pat was the first person from the church to come to our house. She brought us a meal. I don't remember the food, but I will never forget Pat, her kind welcoming of us or her warm and generous spirit. She was a charter member of the congregation, loved it greatly and hoped we would come to share that love. I was there 9 years, our children went through elementary school there and, indeed, we came to love the church too. Pat, Dick and their family (especially Alyson, Rocky, Tony and Katie) will always remain special in our memories. May her life continue to inspire us, and may God's presence comfort her family and friends.
