

Patricia L. McGuire

February 11, 1935 - October 31, 2014

Patricia L. McGuire,

79, entered into eternal peace on October 31, 2014 in Fishers, IN. Born on February 11, 1935, she was preceded in death by her mother, Wilma T. Jett of Indianapolis. Pat was a graduate of Arsenal Technical High School where she was an accomplished soloist for the choir and throughout the city of Indianapolis, and attracted the attention of her soon to be high school sweetheart, John W. McGuire, whom she married on June 11, 1954.

Pat worked for many years at Indianapolis Power and Light where she met many dear friends. She went to work for Hamilton Southeastern Schools in many roles and also served as an active PTO volunteer. In addition to having a beautiful singing voice, Pat was passionate about her dogs and all animals. She never drove past a stray animal without stopping to find it's home or ultimately adopting it.

Visitation will be Tuesday, November 4, 2014 from 5:00 p.m. until the time of the Celebration of Life service at 7:00 p.m. at Shirley Brothers Fishers-Castleton Chapel, 9900 Allisonville Rd. A private burial will take place Wednesday, November 5, 2014 in Oaklawn Memorial Gardens.

Pat is survived by her loving husband of 60 years, John W. McGuire; daughters, Kathy (Wayne) Miller, Kristi (David) Simonett and Kelli (Jason) Jacobs; sister-in-law, Jane McGuire; and her seven grandchildren, Ryan, Graham and Colin Miller, Meghan and Jonathan Simonett, Natalie and Kathryn Jacobs.

In lieu of flowers, contributions may be made to the Alzheimer's Association and/or the Hamilton County Humane Society in her memory.

“ I am so sorry to hear that Pat passed away. Seeing her picture brought back so many memories from growing up. She was like another mother to me during those grade school years! I hope you all find peace knowing that she is now in a better place, but I know that she will be missed. I'm keeping you in my prayers.

Much love, Becky Kinley Corsaro
