“ In my tenure with the Wesleyan Church, my responsibilities encompassed not only contributing to the youth ministry but also overseeing production in the Recording Studio and leading youth initiatives. It was in this multifaceted role that I had the honour of collaborating with Ya Estes. A spiritual mentor of unwavering faith, her example of living a life rooted in the teachings of Scripture, marked by love and service, continues to guide and inspire my own journey in faith. Reflecting on Pat Estes' life, I am reminded of a poignant thought: 'Our time of service on earth is but a brief interlude before heading for heaven.' This resonates deeply with the way she embraced her faith with grace, humility, and a steadfast trust in the Lord. Her life was a living testament to this belief, and her memory serves as an enduring source of inspiration. May her soul rest in eternal peace, in the glorious presence of our Heavenly Father. Your spirituals son in the Lord. Stephen Tunkara(Sheku) London, UK.

“ Pat was one of my closest friends. She was so loving, caring, funny and was on fire for the Lord. She always made me laugh and smile. Seeing her in her last few days was rough, but now she is with the Lord and watching us all.

“ We remember the many times we were welcomed to your home. We sat around the kitchen table, tie dye tablecloth of course. We ate and enjoyed endless stories of all the Estes life experiences. It was always joy laughter and “tell God tenkei” Pat was always ready for an adventure.
