Tribute Wall

SJ

“ I am sorry to be so late placing this tribute on Patricia's wall, but I just found out about her death. We exchanged Christmas cards every year & when I did not get a card from her this year, I knew that something was wrong. I knew her sister, Blanche, & Blanche's husband, DC, back in 1964 when he was working near Richmond, VA I was very fond of Blanche & sent her a letter. Patricia responded to my letter telling me that Blanche had passed away. From that day forward, we exchanged Christmas cards every year. I didn't even know what she looked like until now as I view her obit photo, but I knew she had a good heart just like our Blanche. I am so very sorry to learn of her passing & will miss hearing from her . . .

“ Mom you were the rock of our family. You were always there for all of us. Whether it be guidance, love or just a listening ear. You were loved by so many. You fought a hard battle and you fought it through your last breath. I hope we as a family will continue to make you proud of each and everyone of us. We love you mom and you will truly be missed. Please watch over all of us. On a side note your Pavers just beat Kevin's Timberwolves. Until we see you again.
