

Patricia A. "Patsy" Shaughnessy

February 7, 1926 - December 28, 2014

Patricia A. "Patsy" Shaughnessy, 88, of Indianapolis, passed away December 28, 2014. She was born February 7, 1926 to the late John J. and Anna Gertrude Reardon Shaughnessy who were fortunate to have a kindhearted daughter to care for them.

Patsy had a fulfilling career with RCA, later Thomson Consumer Electronics, beginning at age 19 in a temporary position which progressed over a 45-year period. At her retirement, she had the longest service of all TCE employees in Indy and was probably the most senior secretary for the company in the U.S. Patsy's happiest moments include her trip to England with Judy Gigante to attend Quanah's son's wedding and traveling to Wales and Ireland enjoying family, volunteering at Holy Spirit Church, and singing with the Good Time Singers. We have so many happy memories of Patsy. She always made family and friends feel very special on holidays and birthdays with heavenly meals and warm conversation.

Patsy is survived by her brother, John (Judy) Shaughnessy; nieces, Judy Gigante, Quanah Holland and Michele Shaughnessy. A sister, Marguerite, preceded her in death.

According to Patsy's wishes, there will be no calling or services.

Arrangements are entrusted to Shirley Brothers Washington Memorial Chapel.
