“ So many memories of my Dear Friend—Early grade school and high school years, watching our babies grow, thrifting, sharing recipes and cooking, her love of flowers, sharing dinners with Merle and Tom, jokes, laughs, and sadness. No more grief for you sweet Patsy. No more pain for you. No more laying in bed, no more sadness. I wish could see you embracing all your loved ones who went before you—oh the joy! I’ll see you in heaven. Love you.

“ Patsy always told me to be safe going home and thanked me for visiting her to clean her up. I would tell her I love you and she would say it back. She always would want me to take some candy. I would always thank her for it. Michele her hospice aide
