“ Pat and I have been friends since kindergarten and I have so many fond memories our times together. Though we did not always keep in touch through the years when we did meet it was like time had not passed. Pat had a heart of gold and was always there when you needed her. My prayers go out to Mark and all the family and she will truly be missed. Love you Pat!

“ Pat was my best friend for over 50 years. I can't imagine this life without this sweet considerate and loving lady. We counted on each other without fail. My heart hurts and I cannot stop crying. I will miss her until we meet again. May God wrap his arms around Mark and their 6 fur babies, Vikki and the rest of the family. The pain that you endure today will get better with all our prayers. I love you Pat!
