“ Patty, God gave us 37 beautiful years together. I was hoping for so many more. But it was time for you to go home on Feb 9,2018. If I only new that was going to be my last time I got to kiss you and tell you that I love you. You are the best wife anyone could hope for. We have 5 beautiful children and they gave us the best grandchildren. I know how much you loved to be the grandkids. You and I loved to travel. Your favorite place was Jamaica. Yesterday was mother's Day, we planted flowers for u like we always do, it turned out beautiful don't u think mom? I know you're with us all and you was probably looking down smiling... I just wish you was here in person, just so we could have seen the smile on your face when u looked at it and I can hear that remark u would say its about time you guys did something right and that look with that little smirk on your face....lol I'm trying to stay strong mom it's hard I miss you everyday.. The Boys Are Young I talk to them everyday about you and show them pictures that way they always have their memories of you as they get older... Sometimes they will just stop and look at your picture and tell me Mom I miss Grandma Patty, I tell them I know but that you are in a good place you are in heaven... Jace when we do homework I got a picture of you holding him the day I had him, and if he does something good on his homework we will do a little dance and he'll look at your picture and say, I did it grandma, I did it.. mom we love and miss you so much we will keep your memory alive forever in our hearts you will always be he was the best mom in the world and you kept us all together and we will all stay together... Fly high beautiful and Happy Mother's Day...❤️#1mom your our Guardian 😇
