“ I have so many fond memories of my Dad that it breaks my heart to know he is no longer with us. I miss him so much! I regret that no mention was made in the obituary about his many years of service to God as it was a huge part of his life or that of his marriage to my Mom of 50 years. He mentioned Mom and Hazel every time I went to see him at the nursing home but he always knew who I was. He's gone but his legacy lives on!

“ I've known Paul for many years...he was the type of man that helped in time of need. He would make sure to find something for you to do to make a few bucks to get by on. Lots of memories delivering TV's and appliances.
