“ The lost of Peggy is a great one. She had such a wonderful personality. Her laugh was like no other, to which she did quite often. Mom and I had some great times with Peggy.

She was my sister's mother-in-law and Teresa loved her dearly. Tom (Peggy's son) was a wonderful man and was the best husband, brother-in-law, step-father, son-in-law a person could have. Now Peggy, Tom, Teresa and mom can all be together.

I wish I could have attended the services.

Peggy, tell everyone hello for me and I look forward to seeing you all someday!

My love and prayers to the family!

So sorry to hear about Auntie Peggy's passing. I like these two photos. The first one is amazing, your dad looks a lot like Tom. The 70s pic is how I recall. Especially all the memories of the parties you all had when you lived on Burnham “Karen, Kathy, Bob, and families, please accept my deepest, heartfelt condolences on the passing of your mother. Peggy was a one of a kind, forever friend! Through God's Hands to my heart, God nudged me to go up and introduce myself to Peggy at Christ the Savior Lutheran Church (CTS). Our friendship was a quick connection. Peggy and I both sat toward the back of the church, and both had survived breast cancer. She agreed to go to our Tuesday Night Bible Study, and lit up the room there with her beautiful smile. Peggy loved our bible study group, her church community, our pastors, eating at O'Charley's after church at times, sharing a meal in her home, going to the movie theaters, playing card games, and talking a lot about her children and grandchildren. When Peggy moved to NC to be with her son Bob and daughter-in-law, she told me how she really loved it there. She met good people there and became friends...always easy for her to do! It has been heartbreaking knowing Peggy came back to Indy to see family and friends, and due to COVID-19, she was not able to visit at church, nor with her church friends/community. Although we talked on the telephone, we were not able to get together...a huge loss! We talked the night before she passed, with an invite to visit me and see my condo for the first time that Thursday or Friday since I had off from work. Peggy was a kind, caring, loving, beautiful, and gentle soul who was more concerned taking care of others than herself. I was honored to be called Peggy's friend, and thank God for our connection. Peggy is now pain free in the arms of our Heavenly Father. R.I.P. Peggy. You have left a void but I will forever hold you in my heart dear friend!

“ I'm so sorry for your loss. Peggy has been such a good friend for the past 18 years. We didn't get to see each other as often once she moved, but we talked on the phone most days, and her conversation and laughter kept me company on my ride home from work. I'll miss her terribly, but I know she's resting in the arms of the Lord, and I look forward to the day I'll get to see my friend again.
