“ Although I didn't know Peggy very well I knew her grandmother, mother & her Aunt Bert very well. They were all amazing strong women who loved God and their families more than anything. Each one of them always had a kind word and big smile for everyone. They loved being together and it makes me smile picturing them All together now with our Lord and Savior. God bless her family and especially her children she loved so much.

“ Peggy was a joy to be around -- funny, practical, caring. She has done my hair for more than 40 years. She loved her family and shared beautiful stories. And she gave me a monthly "shower" at no charge. I will miss her dearly. She and her beloved family will always be in my prayers. - Kathy Cox

“ We have worked together off and on for years. We have laughed and cried with each other many times. She will be in my heart and mind till we meet again. I am sure she was greeted by her best friend, her Mom.
