“ I knew your father in the early 60's when I ran around with Larry. Larry and I were teenagers then. I remember Philip as having this great macho cool about himself. I really admired him. Jerry Miller

“ I would like everyone who did not know my dad he was a great man and he loved his family to the end. My dad took 5 other kids as he's own before me and my brother was born and anytime no matter what time it was if my mom wanted something from the store or just a pack of cigarettes from the gas station he got up out of bed and went and got the, my dad would do anything in the world for anybody if it was his last bit of money and some one else needed it he give it to them. My dad was a good hard worker to make sure his family was taken care of and he was my daddy anytime i needed him he was always there for me and all being said my dad was truly a good man, father,husband,grandfather,great grandfather, brother ,friend and ect.. Thats who my daddy was and i sure do miss and love him more than words could every say...
