“ You can't help but to love Phil !
ALWAYS a big smile and a huge laugh.
He always took the time to make you feel important and cared about.
His son Scott and I grew up together and our times with Phil were always special and mostly fun except if you knew Scott we did receive the well deserved discipline side of Phil too!
I know how much he loved his kids and grandkids!
I know you will miss him terribly!
Even though I did not see him much over the last 40 years I will miss him too!!!
Especially when I drive down old Allisonville Rd.
I will hold onto the sweet memories !

“ One of my many childhood memories of Phil was years ago when I was maybe 10-years old and Phil, Jo, and their entire family opened up their home to host the company picnic. It was such a fun time. Hot dogs, burgers, BBQ corn on the cob, desserts, swimming pool, horses, dogs...they just opened their home to everybody. I remember they had a pet skunk. Who has a pet skunk?? As a kid, I thought that was so cool and it's the only time in my life I ever pet a skunk! Years later, when it came to my turn to plan my own company picnic, I had the blueprint in my memories. (but no skunk!)

Phil was such a great person and had such a positive impact on so many lives. He'll be missed. My thoughts and prayers go out to the entire Rushton family.

Rest in Peace Phil.
