“ Aunt Phyllis was a wonderful person. When I was a child my family spent many weekends and holidays with the Boehms. Aunt Phyllis was a welcoming and calm presence. Her acceptance of us helped me and my sisters through some tumultuous times. Even in early adulthood she stuck by us and her sister, my mom. The afghan she made me is full of color and comforts me every night in my favorite chair. She was gracious and even keel and will always be in my heart. Her memory will hopefully help me to practice those traits.
