“ My family and I had the good fortune of being neighbors with Phyllis and Chuck the second door down for several years. Years of fond memories of them being neighbors that you knew couldn't be better.

“ You and I shared something in common for 60 plus years as being married to Eberle men. I truly appreciated the loan of your wedding dress for my wedding pictures 64 years ago. Trying to think of events or things that stuck with me throughout the years brings to mind a couple of things. Number one was the aroma of your spaghetti sauce cooking in your kitchen when you lived on Oxford street. I'm sure the family would agree. The second one also happened when you lived on Oxford Street. You found out a way to sneak up in back of me while everything was very still and quiet and yell "boo". I think I jumped two feet in the air. Those memories have stayed with me throughout the years. Rest in peace Phyllis.

“ Aunt Phyllis fed me many a meal in my teenage years visiting Cousin Michael. She was always a gracious host. One thing I still remember is, in the depths of the cold winter in Indiana and the inability of a Volkswagen to generate heat, Aunt Phyllis would heat bricks in the oven and wrap them in towels to help keep Uncle Bud warm on the way to Western Electric. That's considerate! Thank you for the wonderful memories.

“ Phyllis and I were in the same homemakers club for several years. She was a kind and fun lady and was the best dressed person in the group. I love you Phyllis and Chuck.
