“ I have known you many years and I will always remember your beauty, smile & laughter. You where a great mother to your children and also a friend to them in which they learned from you. I see a lot of Pam in you and she sure loves her mother, she has many memories to cherish of you and her. Fly high our beautiful angel and remember you will be missed by all.

“ Priscilla was a dear friend and neighbor that I have treasured the past 15 years. Living across from her was a complete joy, especially when we were able to have our little talks and share our love of dogs. She was a compassionate woman who always had a wonderful smile to brighten ones day. In the recent years her health declined more and more, but her spirit for living was strong and she was definitely a fighter. The stories she told created a picture of a loving mother and hard worker in her day, as well as her ability to be accepting and loving in her special manner. I will miss her and remember her often as a friend for life!
