When I was in elementary school we had many friends whom we only enjoyed for a year or two because we were close to Fort Knox & the military & civilian workforce there. My mom worked with Ray's stepmom around 1970 or 71 as she & his dad split up. He and his brothers brought her a birthday gift. And some extra gifts for future years when they would not see her. I was remembering the kindness of Ray & his brothers & when I googled them it brought tears to my eyes to see that he & one of his brothers were no longer on this earth. He was a nice fellow. I pray all his family will be healthy & happy. If he could say anything to us from heaven maybe it would be to make every day count as we don't know how many days we will have. I am so glad he had good people in his life.
