

Raymond Sam Hiatt, Jr.

May 13, 1934 - October 10, 2025

Raymond Samuel Hiatt, Jr.,

91, of Indianapolis, passed away October 10, 2025. He was born May 13, 1934 in Indianapolis to the late Raymond Samuel, Sr. and Helen (Moffett) Hiatt. Growing up Sam was a Howe High School graduate who went on to get a bachelor's degree from Butler University. He married Joella Katherine (Able) Hiatt who preceded him in death May 19, 2022. Sam worked as a trusted independent CPA. He lived most of his adult life in the Irvington neighborhood of Indianapolis where he was a faithful member of Downey Avenue Christian Church. His interests included being a musician, traveler, Mason, and a member of investment clubs. He will be remembered for his calm, helpful, and charitable manner.

Final care and arrangements are entrusted to Shirley Brothers Washington Memorial Chapel, Indianapolis, IN.

Cemetery Details

Washington Park East

10612 E. Washington St.
Indianapolis, IN 46229

Tribute Wall

ES

“ I knew Sam as a very talented trombone player when I conducted the Athenaeum Turners Orchestra from 1980-92. In addition to making lovely sounds with his trombone partner Wayne Gartin, Sam was simply the kindest man you would meet. He demeanor was always positive and friendly to his fellow music makers. He greatly enjoyed playing for Athenaeum events and also for dozens of church festivals and other such occasions. He will be welcomed into a celestial ensemble for sure.

Ed Staubach - October 22, 2025 at 08:33 AM