“ Becky was my second cousin. I remember the family reunions we had and playing with her. She was a year younger than me and a year older than my sister, Jenny. She had the smile that could light up a room. When she had her son, Chad, she sent me a photo and instantly i could tell he was hers, that same round face and wonderful smile! I am sorry we didnt set aside the time to talk over other family memories, but some day I will learn why you were named after my Great Great Grandma, Rebecca. I met Chad and Tiffany at my Great Grandma Martha's funeral. I send them both, as well as Ruth Ann, my heart felt condolences. Rest in peace cousin as you are now embarking on a brand new journey and say hello to your folks for us!
