“ A fond memory I have of Reese's love for the ice goes back to when he had his first team, we were visiting & Katie took us to watch Reese practice. Reese was first on the ice, moving the puck & looking pretty good. Then a high school player came out and began skating with Reese, I thought, "OK, the kid looks good." But I really didn't have any way to compare him to others his age. Shortly after, the door opens & the rink is flooding with little players...falling down, trying to skate backward, heck trying to skate! I asked Katie, "Who are those kids?" "His teammates." she replied. Yes Reese could skate & loved the ice.

Even though the miles between us have been many & our visits few, our love for Reese has always been strong.

With love,

Uncle Tim & Aunt Kathy
