“ I was so sorry to hear of Kay's passing. I was employed at Baker & Daniels while Kay and Ann worked in the copy center there. You always knew that you would come away smiling from a trip to the copy center, even if you had a short deadline for Kay and/or Ann, they were always accomodating (and fun). If both Kay and Ann were working, you never knew what to expect - they were like a comedy duo at times. My sincere condolences to Ann and to Kay's family. RIP, Kay. I remember you well.

“ Kay was my hairstylist for at least 10 years. When you see someone every two week for ten years, you establish a relationship that is stronger than a family relationship. I considered her husband, children, grandchildren and sister to be family. She considered my son and daughter to be her family. May God continue to be with her family in this time of their grief. Rest in peace Kay.
