“Who is like our God!” - Larry Cox

“Behold, I shew you a mystery; We shall not all sleep, but we shall all be changed, in a moment in the twinkling of an eye, at the last trump: for the trumpet shall sound and the dead shall be raised incorruptible, and we shall be changed...” Oh death, where is thy sting? Oh grave, where is our victory?

1 Corinthians 15:51-55

Final care and arrangements are entrusted to Shirley Brothers Thompson Road Chapel.

“ I will always remember Bro Cox and I praying and agreeing together that his mother who was late in years Would be saved. He would bring her to church about every Sunday she was able. He knew my testimony about my grandmother Hazel who was Baptized in Jesus name at 100 years old! I believe Sister Alice Was in her early 90s and I witnessed her going down in the only saving name of Jesus! We wept and rejoiced together ❤️ What a day that was. Your smile and worship will be missed by all! The sound of the trumpet 🎺 When you had the energy, I will greatly miss!! There is No One Like Our GOD!!

“ Bro. Cox, every time that you were on the pulpit your presence lit the whole area up with your beautiful worship and praises!! Always new you put your whole heart into because your face just glowed with redness. It always filled our hearts to watch you..sometimes it would be hard to worship ourself because your love for your Savior would light the whole front..just trying now to imagine how the Heavens are glowing at this moment!! We love you so much and I'm sure the others will keep that beautiful glow going..
