“ Dear Bonnie & family, I can't tell you how very sorry I am for this great loss. Rex was an amazing person, so full of fun and life and energy. As my Youth Leader he taught me so many things that have benefitted me through out my life, and I have shared those lessons with many others. I had the opportunity to work for you at Notre Dame which in turn nurtured my relationship with my future husband Lance Shearer. It's amazing when you look back at your life and see how important people were in the forming of your future- and Bonnie you and Rex were those people for me.

“ Bonnie, Rex was a great friend to me for many years when I lived in Indiana, and I loved his entire family. Our move to Florida in 1985 put a lot of distance between us, but I have thought about him many times. Please know that I am praying for you and your kids. May God bless you. Mike

“ Rex will be missed by all...he and I were always greeting people as they came into the sanctuary and often we would compare our notes as to people's names or information, I always loved his outgoing personality and how he could easily talk to people.. I know he will be there to greet me when we meet again...Alice Hudson

Rex's words from the platform of our church were always simple, yet full of wisdom. SUCH a down to earth guy! He, his wife Bonnie, and their entire family are people with a servant's heart. He will be very much missed.

A wonderful man who I was lucky enough to know and call my very good friend. So many wonderful times and much laughter during our ventures of church camp, softball, tennis and endless other activities. Rex was a true inspiration to me in my youth and a great role model. I never saw him without a smile. Bonnie I am so very sorry. I remember when you two met.....he was instantly in love with you. You and your family are in my prayers.
