“ Rhonda aunque no te conocí sabía que entre tu y mi sobrino Aroldo habia, un fuerte compromiso de AMOR ; UN HOGAR! Ahora que partiste dejando un vacio en el corazón de tu esposo, ruego a Dios que lo llene de paz y fortaleza, lo mismo a tu hermano.
KEVIN: Dios sea contigo en este momento de dolor.
Nos encontraremos en la Patria Celestial. Una abrazo con aprecio.

“ I pray for comfort for your family. I know she is free from pain and sickness and rejoicing with her family and fur babies that have gone on ahead of her. With every ray on sunshine she is acknowledging those left behind saying that she is ok. She had so much knowledge to share with her Nursing staff and the love for her Residents was amazing. You will be missed my friend.

“ There are many cliché sayings about old friends that could be referenced (and they would all be true), but I would rather just speak from my heart-

Rhonda was a precious and rare being. Even though we didn't speak frequently...we didn't need to.....If she called, I answered, and if I called, she answered. We seemed to have an understanding.

My prayers are with the family.

I am blessed and thankful to have shared time in this life with Rhonda.

Be at peace, my friend.
